“Calm Beneath the Chaos”

We are in a time of chaos: Political divisions, social unrest, and tensions between and within our denominations. We seek together to be well-grounded in our faith and our several callings, so that we might hold a calm presence within ourselves and bring it to others. We remember Jesus rising from sleep to calm the storm, and Elijah emerging from a cave to hear the sheer silence of God. Join us for an ecumenical retreat of reflection, sharing, and conversation.
